On Mr. GREY's MOTIONS,

Moved in the HOUSE of COMMONS,

Tuesday, April 12, 1791,

On the Approach of a RUSSIAN WAR.

L O N D O N:

PRINTED FOR J. DEBRETT, OPPOSITE
BURLINGTON-HOUSE, PICCADILLY.

M DCC XCI.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Tuesday, April 12, 1791.

M R. G R E Y,

Member for the County of NORTHUMBERLAND,

Moved the following Resolutions:

1. "That it is at all times, and particularly
"under the present circumstances, the
"interest of this country to preserve
"peace."
2. "That it is neither reasonable nor just
"to take up arms for the purpose of
"dictating terms of Peace between na-
"tions engaged in hostilities, without
"any reference either to the cause of the
"dispute, or the circumstances of the
"war."
3. "That the refusal of an offer of medi-
"ation is no just cause of war."
4. "That, during the progress of the war
"between Russia and the Porte, and
"since the taking of Ockzakoff, this
"House has received repeated assurances
"from the Throne, That the situation
"of affairs continued to promise to this
"country the uninterrupted enjoyment of
"the blessings of peace."

5. "That,

5. "That, convinced of the truth of the
"assurances which we have received
"from the Throne, this House has hi-
"therto considered the interests of
"Great Britain as not likely to be af-
"fected by the progress of the Russian
"arms on the borders of the Black Sea."
6. "That this Country is not bound by any
"Treaty to furnish assistance to any of
"our allies, except in the case of an
"attack upon them."
7. "That none of the possessions of this
"country, or of any of its allies, appear
"to be threatened with an hostile attack
"from any foreign nation."
8. "That the expence of an Armament must
"be burthensome to the country, and
"is, under the present circumstances, as
"far as this House is informed, highly
"inexpedient and unnecessary."

VISCOUNT BELGRAVE,

One of the LORDS of the ADMIRALTY,

Moved the Previous Question.

The House divided.

That Mr. GREY's Motion be now put.
